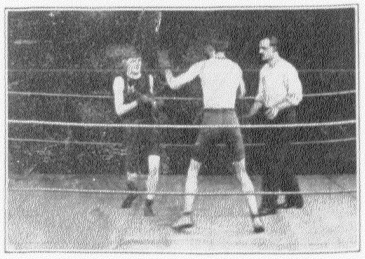
The Amateur Champion

Length, 615 Feet — Price, $67.65

Mike McDooley is a hod carrier. His son, who is sporty inclined, joins the "Amateur Boxing Club" and instead of working becomes an all-around-sport. By knocking out his opponent he become "The Amateur Champion."



Not satisfied with his victory over little Tommy O'Toole, he challenges his father, but here he strikes a snag and is knocked out in the first round.

Baxter Lost His Collar Button

The hunting for this so easily mislaid necessity makes him so nervous, that he get a brain storm. It is almost impossible to describe all the crazy antics through which he goes. At last he lands in the dippy house; the doctor examines him, and finds that his wheels are out of order. They put him in a padded cell where he is still hunting for that lost collar button.
